Friday 7th October 2022

Dear Parents,

Attendance leads to attainment. Every day in school matters. Coming to school every day ensures that learning is not missed.

Following meetings with our school attendance ambassadors, children have discussed ways to promote attendance. One of these ideas is to have 'special days' to promote children to come to school.

The first of these days will be, 'break the rules day'. This will take place on;

FRIDAY 14th OCTOBER 2022

Therefore we would like to give each child the opportunity to break some school rules for the day.

Children can choose to break some of the rules listed below. We aim to make this a fun experience and children are reminded that all other school rules still apply!

Please see the list below on rules that are allowed to be broken.

- No uniform
- Juice/squash in water bottle instead of water
- Chocolate for snacks
- Trainers that are not black
- Eat your pudding before your meal for lunch
- Nail varnish
- Temporary tattoo

A £1.00 donation will be appreciated. All money raised will go towards attendance rewards.

Thank you for your co-operation.
