

Home learning – Reception

Week commencing: 18th May 2020

By Lauren Child

- Reading: have a look at the front cover of this book. Do you know this story? Who are the characters? Can you read any of the words from the title of the story? What do you think this story is about?
- Read the story 'I will never not ever eat a tomato'
- Watch it here: <https://www.dailymotion.com/video/x5iyq9l>
- There is also a copy of the story in this file.
- Tell someone in your house what the story is about
- Can you remember all of the fruits and vegetables in the story?

- Writing Task – Can you write to Lola to persuade her to try something new? Use your imagination to come up with a fun name for some foods.

For example:

Dear Lola

Would you like to try a green football sprout from Iceland. When you eat them they make you score lots of goals!

Love Emily

- Can you draw it and write words or sentences to describe it? Don't forget to use all your sounds and some of those "tricky" red words we have learnt: the, my, I, you, to
- ★ Challenge: use a capital letter and a full stop at the end of your sentence!

- Maths –this week we are looking at money.
- Talk to your grown up about what we need money for. (pp to help) For example pay for electric, clothes, food
- How do we earn money? What do you want to be when you grow up?

- With a grown up, can you identify some of the numbers on different coins? Are they all the same shape? Are they all the same colour? What's different about them?
- Can you make a shop and label the items?

★ Challenge how many pennies are in 5p, 10p 20p

Topic based task: keeping our bodies healthy

Can you draw pictures for each plate and label them?
