Determination of Admission Arrangements

The School Admissions (Admission Arrangements and Co-ordination of Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2012.

In accordance with The School Admissions (Admission Arrangements and Co-ordination of Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2012, the admission authority for all schools in the Enfield Learning Trust has now determined their admission arrangements for 2018/19.

Any person or body has a right to object to admission arrangements, subject to the relevant sections of the above act; conditions to be met (regulation 24) and objections that cannot be made (regulation 21 or 22).

Objections can be made online at GOV.UK

in writing to OSA, Bishopsgate House, Feethams, Darlington, DL1 5QE.

Consultation took place between 8th December 2016 and February 2017 on the proposed change to Chesterfield Primary School's admissions arrangements for 2018; to make changes to the existing admissions policy.

- A reduction in the planned admission number at Chesterfield Primary School from 120 to 90 from September 2018.

Consultation activities included writing to parents/carers/governors, wider community and advertising the proposed change on this website. There were no objections received following consultation and the Enfield Learning Trust Board has now formally determined the proposed arrangements for 2018.
